Pupil Voice, Participation and Sustainability bulletin.

December 2022

As we hurtle towards the end of 2022, we appreciate that this is a busy time for schools. We hope that you manage to have some time to read this final bulletin of the year and find it helpful. The bulletin includes information to support you with sustainability, pupil voice and participation as well as other important news and training updates to support your development in the New Year. A massive thank you to everyone in school for your amazing work this year, and we hope that everyone has a wonderful break over the festive period.

Promoting good health sessions for schools.

If you are a school in any of the following areas you are entitled to a no cost one-hour interactive session on health and hygiene.

- Burmantofts, Harehills, Richmond Hill;
- Armley;

- Morley;
- Garforth, Kippax, Rothwell;
- Middleton, Hunslet.

Have you booked your session yet?

The sessions have been developed in partnership with Leeds University, Public Health and Magpie and seek to complement existing statutory teaching for Health Education. The sessions are suitable for pupils in either Year 5 or Year 6 and can be delivered in groups of up to 30 pupils. Sessions can be delivered to more than one group for schools which are 2 - 3 form entry. To book your session please contact schoolwellbeing@leeds.gov.uk

Welcome to any new readers! If this is the first time that you've received a Leeds for Learning bulletin, it is because you have recently attended a Leeds for Learning event or your School Business Manager has shared information with us about your role in school. If it's not for you, then there's the option to opt out, but we hope you'll stay.

Our Healthy Schools bulletin covering PSHE, SEMH, Healthy Eating and Physical Activity is sent out every 2nd Tuesday of the half term.

For more information about our service, resources or support please email schoolwellbeing@leeds.gov.uk
